The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 10-15, 19-25, 31-37, 42-43, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. 4945730 (Laney).

Laney discloses a power tool comprising an explosive cartridge for applying connectors to power lines, comprising first tool member 22, a second tool member including a breech assembly 47 having a breech opening 66, the explosive cartridge is activated to slide the first member relative to the second member.

Claims 4-9, 16-18, 26-30, 38-41, are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hedberg et al and Lomastro et al disclose power tools having breech assembly.
